

Travel ITINERARY

Reedsburg - A Hub of Fun for Everyone

- Paddle your way through the Lazy Beaver Canoe & Kayak Race down the Baraboo River - the longest, free-flowing river in the country
- Bike, hike, or even snowmobile along the 400 State Trail, a former railroad track that connects Reedsburg to Elroy, Wisconsin
- Head to Concerts in the Park, where you can enjoy performances by local musicians and bands at City Park every week in the summer
- Indulge in an all-you-can-eat breakfast at the Reedsburg Rotary Fly-in/Drive-in, while marveling over classic cars and airplanes
- Gather your friends, grab a glass, and head to downtown Reedsburg's shopping district for a little wine sampling during Reedsburg Uncorked
- Reedsburg's shop windows literally come alive during Living Windows to kick off the holiday season, and even includes horse drawn carriage rides and a visit from Santa
- Take in all the fun and tradition of Reedsburg's annual summer Butterfest, including a parade, tractor pulls and "Bossy" Bingo
- End Butterfest with a bang at the demolition derby
- Learn about the daily lives of Reedsburg's original settlers at Pioneer Log Village
- Admire the vibrant colors and artistry on a tour of the barn quilts on Reedsburg area farms
